

Sociology of Corruption Symposium
University of Chicago

Friday, September 24

9 – 9:15am Welcome Remarks

9:15 – 10am Introductions & Breakfast [outside]

 Session I: Framing the volume

10-10:30 am Marco Garrido (University of Chicago), Embeddedness in the Study of Corruption

10:30-11 am Nicholas Wilson (SUNY-Stony Brook), Trading Zones and the Study of Corruption

11-11:30 am Marina Zaloznaya, Sociology of Corruption as a Study of Power:

11:30-12 pm Group Discussion [outside]

12-1 pm LUNCH

 Session II: Socio-political dimensions of corruption

1-1:30 pm Richard Lachmann, Elite Autarky and Corruption

1:30-2 pm David Jancsics, What is Social in Corrupt Exchanges?

2-2:30 pm Rahardhika Utama, Bureaucratic Clientelism as Mechanism of Corruption

2:30-3 pm Group Discussion [outside]

3-3:30 pm COFFEE BREAK

 Session III: Corruption in the Global South

3:30-4 pm Jack Jin Gary Lee & Kwai Ng, The Becoming of "Corruption" as A Public Problem In Colonial HK

4-4:30 pm Sneha Annavarapu, Brokers and Bribes in India

4:30-5 pm Leslie MacColman, Material Interests, Moral Claims, and Political Contests: Corruption in the Metro Police in Buenos Aires

5-6 pm Group Discussion [outside]

6:30 DINNER @ Mesler Restaurant: <https://meslerchicago.com/>

Saturday, September 25

9:30 – 10am Breakfast [outside]

 Session IV: Narratives of Corruption

10-10:30 am Alex Diamond & Tomas Gold, How Narratives of Corruption Shape Political Action From Above and Below

10:30-11 am Anurag Singha, A Corrupt Education? Prerogative, Prejudice, and the Founding of East India College

11-11:30 am Luiz Vilaca, How Bureaucracies Mobilized Corruption in a Crusade Against Political Elites
11:30-12 pm Group Discussion [outside]

12-1 pm LUNCH

 Session V: Assessing and Addressing Consequences of Corruption

1-1:30 pm Jaimie Sommer, Corruption & Embedded Autonomy: A Cross-National Analysis of Forest Loss

1:30-2 pm Byron Villacis, The Global Structure of Anti-Corruption Experts

2-3 pm Group Discussion & a WRAP UP

 Departures